God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ have given to us many wonderful promises. And all of these promises in Him are, “Yes”, and in Him, “Amen”, to the glory of God through us. 2Corinthians 1:20.

In 2Peter 1:3, 4, it says that God’s divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who has called us into His glory and moral uprightness. And that He has given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that by these we might be partakers of His divine nature and escape the corruption that is in the world through lust. (Expressed in some of my own words).

So we have a solid, unshakeable, foundation for our expectation from God, of all His goodness and provision and blessings, as we believe His Word and promises and trust in Him all the time. God is faithful. He is one hundred percent faithful.

Example: If we have a sinful bondage, we are to confess it and believe His Word to set us free. He will. Ezekiel 36:25 to 27.

O thank the Lord for He is good, for His mercy endures for ever. Keep on saying this, because He has redeemed us from the hand of our enemy. And He has gathered us from every land to Himself and to one another. Praise Him all the time. Psalm 107:1, 2, 3.

We must expect His answer, His mercy, His provision, and His goodness in all things.

Jesus said, “And in that day ye shall ask Me nothing, verily, verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in My Name He will give it to you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in My Name: ask and you will receive that your joy may be full”. KJV. John 16:23, 24.

As we believe the Word of God, our expectation of receiving His provision through Jesus Christ will increase. Mark 9:23.

One well known pastor in the United States said, “I expect the inevitable, supernatural, intervention of God, I expect a miracle.” (Pastor Jack Hayford, Church on the Way, California, U.S.A.)

There are many wonderful encouragements from the Word of God, to help us to expect God to hear and answer our cry to Him.

Psalm 34:15. The eyes of the Lord are over the righteous and His ears are open to their cry.

The righteous cry out and the Lord hears them, and delivers them from all their troubles. Verse 17.

Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of all of them. Verse 19.

Jesus said, “What things so ever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them and ye shall have them”. Mark 11:24.

“If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, HOW MUCH MORE SHALL YOUR FATHER WHICH IS IN HEAVEN GIVE GOOD THINGS TO THEM THAT ASK HIM?” Matthew 7:11.

“Thou art the God that doest wonders: Thou hast declared, (displayed), Thy strength among the people.” Psalm 77:14. (See NIV).

We sing:

Expect a miracle when you pray,
Expect a miracle every day,
If you believe it, God will find a way,
To perform a miracle for you each day.

A man came to Jesus one day, crying out for Jesus to heal His son. The man said, If Thou canst do anything, have compassion on us and help us.

Jesus said, It is not can I help you, but can you believe, all things are possible to those who believe. (expressed in some of my own words.) Mark 9:23.

In another place, Jesus said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God, for with God all things are possible”. Mark 10:27.
